North University Admissions Guide

Undergraduate applicants must submit an online application, academic transcripts, proof of identity, and the application fee by the published programme deadline. Incomplete applications are not reviewed.

Applicants can track their application status in the admissions portal. The admissions office normally reviews complete applications within 15 business days. Interviews may be required for selected programmes.

For admission support, contact admissions@north.example. The guide does not define campus parking permits or parking fees.